

Access for all!

Auslan Stage Left supporting Melbourne Fringe Festival's commitment to provide access

Auslan Stage left and Melbourne Fringe are working together to provide art for everyone. A majority of this season's Melbourne Fringe will be Auslan interpreted, reflecting the festival's values of accessibility, diversity and inclusivity.

Bobby Deez – Losing the Plot - Sunday September 18, 2016

Bobby Deez is a man in the middle of a midlife crisis. His journey into hell has taught him something, though what that is, he's not quite sure.

Blindspot - Thursday September 22, 2016

Unravelling backwards in time, Blind Spot follow events set in motion by a failed get-rich-quick scheme, propelling you through prisons, courtrooms, media frenzies and small-town homes.

Immaculate - Festival Club - Friday September 23, 2016

Madonna fans! Join in the celebration of pop culture, feminism and religious iconography.

5 Lesbians Eating A Quiche - Sunday September 25, 2016

Have a blast at the most outrageous community meeting of your life.

Eye of the Storm - Sunday September 25, 2016

Step back, step up and get down. We are over half way through and it's time for another party.

The Moth StorySLAM - Festival Club - Tuesday September 27, 2016

A live storytelling event open to anyone with a five-minute tale...do you have a good story to tell in Auslan!?

Rainbow Cactus - Kids Club - Wednesday September 28, 2016

Bring your friends, gather your families this public holiday and celebrate diversity at this queer family event.

Shake, Shimmy, Shim, Sha Bam! - Kids Club - Thursday September 29, 2016

Our favourite Fringe clown Tessa Waters will have you sending rockets of love and laughter into the sky as we celebrate the magic of all body types.

One Bad Apple - Saturday October 1, 2016

This comedy whodunnit is written and performed by students and it is suitable for upper primary and secondary students.

Fringe Awards - Festival Club - Saturday October 1, 2016

Celebrate the winners of the Melbourne Fringe Awards and shake it till you make it at this farewell party like no other.

"We are proud to be associated with Melbourne Fringe. It is great to see that the Melbourne arts scene, in particular, is leading the way, providing quality access to theatre and the arts for the Deaf community. Melbourne Fringe Festival is truly a festival for all!" said Susan Emerson, Director Auslan Stage Left

About Auslan Stage Left

Auslan Stage Left enables and provides quality Auslan interpreted theatre, and training to interpreters and deaf consultants in the area of theatre interpreting. Auslan Stage Left is committed to working in partnership to foster quality of access provision and to foster an understanding and appreciation of the arts, by the Deaf community. The organisation is auspiced under Arts Access Victoria.

Contacts

Melissa Smith / Communications Coordinator Auslan Stage Left / E: communications@auslanstageleft.com.au